Pam Weber, Vice President, Strategic Initiatives

Pam's background as a private practice attorney and former executive director of the Seminole State College Foundation give her the skills to propel the growth of ROAR! Internet Marketing.

Pam is responsible for ROAR!'s strategic alliances both with clients, industry partners, key vendors and trade associations. She has earned a reputation for building win-win relationships, a skill honed as she increased the incoming revenue for the Seminole State Foundation by more than 200 percent during her tenure.

Her success in the court room and the classroom has made Pam a sought-after public speaker. Her thorough legal research skills enable her to unearth Internet trends and consumer behavior patterns coupled with her knowledge of web design and Internet marketing is the basis of several popular presentations for both large and small businesses.

Immediately after graduating from Stetson Law School, Pam worked in the trust department for Sun Bank before opening her own successful legal practice. A native Floridian, Pam now resides in Winter Springs with her husband Matt, daughter Katie and two larger than expected Mainecoon cats.
